MAY NOW BE ADVANTAGEOUSLY EFFECTED WITH THE

Norwich Union MUTUAL Life Office.

"One of the best Life Offices in the World." The Standard.

THE Directors have long felt that the benefits of insurance should be open to military men on the most favourable terms that can be arranged, and after careful reconsideration they are now prepared to accept proposals (when there is no immediate prospect of foreign service) on the following alternative terms :—

- (1) At a small permanent extra, covering all extra risks both of Climate and War, the rate being 10/- per cent. per annum for the period during which the insured remains on the Active List.
- (2) On payment of the full profit premium without any extra, the only restriction being that No Bonus will be added while the insured remains on the Active List.
- (3) On payment of the ordinary civilian rate with such extra premiums as may from time to time be required either for foreign residence outside the usual free limits, or for specific campaigns.

The Society, in addition to various attractive Policies for Adults, has

ZAMBRENE

WATERPROOFS

FOR MOTORING, SHOOTING, FISHING & ORDINARY WEAR.

ZAMBRENE, "Slip-overs" are the best rubberless raincoats on the market—the most comfortable, the most hygienic and the most effective. ¶ The weather-proof quality is obtained by a special process applied to the yarn both before and again after weaving; the lining is treated in a similar manner, with the result that rain cannot penetrate the fabric except by pressure or friction. ¶ It is equally impervious to dust or wind, but the treatment does not render the cloth "air-proof" nor harden the fabric, so that a "Zambrene" coat, whether a slip-over or a motor coat, is soft and comfortable to wear, as well as hygienically porous. ¶ Smart, comfortable effectual—that is the "Zambrene" raincoat.

At the recommendation of Lord Gough he was promoted to a Company in the 10th Foot, without purchase. As Military Secretary to his Lordship he served in the Punjab campaign of 1848-49, and was present at the affair of outposts at Ramnuggur, 22nd Nov. 1848, and subsequent operations resulting in the passage of the Chenab, and the battles of Chillianwallah and Goojerat (Brevet of Major, Medal with two Clasps). Served with the 21st Fusiliers in the Eastern campaign of 1854-55, including the battles of Alma, Balaclava, and Inkerman, and siege of Sebastopol (Brevet of Lt.Colonel, Medal with four Clasps, 5th Class of the Medjidie, and Turkish Medal). During the Afghan war he directed the military operations as Commander in Chief from September 1879 to September 1880 (received the thanks of both Houses of Parliament).

⁶ Lord Wolsley served with the 80th Regiment in the Burmese war of 1852-53 (Medal for Pegu), was with the expedition under Sir John Cheape against the robber chief Myattoon, and was severely wounded when leading the storming party against the chief's stronghold on the 19th March (mentioned in despatches). Landed in the Crimea with the 90th Light Infantry on 5th Dec. 1854, and was employed in the trenches as Acting Engineer until Sebastopol was taken; was engaged in the assault and defence of the Quarries on 7th June, and on duty in the trenches at the attack of the 18th June; severely wounded in a sortie 30th August, when in charge of the advanced sap (several times mentioned in despatches, Brevet of Major, Medal with Clasp, Knight of the Legion of Honor, 5th Class of the Medjidie, and Turkish Medal). Served in the Indian campaigns of 1857-59, and was present at the relief of Lucknow, defence of the Alumbagh by Outram, with the several engagements there, siege and capture of Lucknow, subsequently as D.A.Q.M. The enemy had formed an ambush at Korn Spruit, and before their presence was discovered by the main body had captured the greater portion of the baggage column and five out of the six guns of the leading battery. When the alarm was given, Q Battery, Royal Horse Artillery, was within 300 yards of the spruit. Major Phipps Hornby, who commanded it, at once wheeled about and moved off at a gallop under a very heavy fire. One gun upset when a wheel horse was shot, and had to be abandoned, together with a wagon, the horses of which were killed. The remainder of the battery reached a position close to some unfinished railway buildings and came into action 1,150 yards from the spruit, remaining in action until ordered to retire. When the order to retire was received Major Phipps Hornby ordered the guns and their limbers to be run back by hand to where the teams of uninjured horses stood behind the unfinished buildings. The few remaining gunners, assisted by a number of officers and men of a party of Mounted Infantry, and directed by Major Phipps Hornby and Captain Humphreys, the only remaining officers of the battery, succeeded in running back four of the guns under shelter. One or two of the limbers were similarly withdrawn by hand, but the work was most severe and the distance considerable. In consequence all concerned were so exhausted that they were unable to drag in the remaining limbers or the fifth gun. It now became necessary to risk the horses, and volunteers were called for from amongst the drivers, who readily responded. Several horses were killed, and men wounded, but at length only one gun and one limber were left exposed. Four separate attempts were made to rescue these, but when no more horses were available the attempt had to be given up and the gun and limber were abandoned. Meanwhile the other guns had been sent on, one at a time, and after passing within 700 or 800 yards of the enemy, in rounding the head of a donga and crossing two spruits they eventually reached a place of safety, where the battery was re-formed. After full consideration of the circumstances of the case the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief in South Africa formed the opinion that the conduct of all ranks of Q Battery, Royal Horse Artillery, was conspicuously gallant and daring, but that all were equally brave and devoted in their behaviour. He, therefore, decided to treat the case of the battery as one of collective gallantry under Rule 13 of the Victoria Cross Warrant, and directed that one officer should be selected for the decoration of the Victoria Cross by the officers, one non-commissioned officer by the non-commissioned officers, and two gunners or drivers by the gunners and drivers. A difficulty arose with regard to the officer, owing to the fact that there were only two unwounded officers—Major Phipps Hornby and Captain Humphreys—available for the work of saving the guns, and both of these had been conspicuous by their gallantry and by the fearless manner in which they exposed themselves, and each of them nominated the other for the decoration. It was ultimately decided in favour of Major Phipps Hornby as having been the senior concerned."

² Colonel R. J. Cooper served with the 2nd Battalion Grenadier Guards in the Egyptian war of 1882, and was present in the engagement at Tel-el-Mahuta and at the battle of Tel-el-Kebir (Medal with Clasp and Khedive's Star). Served in the South African war in 1899 as Railway Staff Officer (Medal with two Clasps).

³ Major Morris served in the campaign on the North West Frontier of India with the 3rd Battalion Rifle Brigade in 1897-98 with the Tchi Field Force (Medal with Clasp).

⁹ Major FitzClarence served in South African war of 1899-1900 on Special Service, and took part in defence of Mafeking—twice wounded, once severely (mentioned in despatches, F.C. Brevet of Major); was awarded the Victoria Cross for the following service:—"On the 14th October, 1899, Captain FitzClarence went with his squadron of the Protectorate Regiment, consisting of only partially trained men, who had never been in action, to the assistance of an armoured train which had gone out from Mafeking. The enemy were in greatly superior numbers, and the squadron was for a time surrounded, and it looked as if nothing could save them from being shot down. Captain FitzClarence, however, by his personal coolness and courage inspired the greatest confidence in his men, and, by his bold and efficient handling of them, not only succeeded in relieving the armoured train, but inflicted a heavy defeat on the Boers, who lost 50 killed and a large number wounded, his own losses being 2 killed and 15 wounded. The moral effect of this blow had a very important bearing on subsequent encounters with the Boers. On the 27th October, 1899, Captain FitzClarence led his squadron from Mafeking across the open, and made a night attack with the bayonet on one of the enemy's trenches. A hand-to-hand fight took place in the trench, while a heavy fire was concentrated on it from the rear. The enemy was driven out with heavy loss. Captain FitzClarence was the first man into the position and accounted for four of the enemy with his sword. The British lost 6 killed and 9 wounded. With reference to these two actions, Major General Baden-Powell states that had this officer not shown an extraordinary spirit and fearlessness, the attacks would have been failures, and we should have suffered heavy loss both in men and prestige. On the 26th December, 1899, during the action at Game Tree, near Mafeking, Captain FitzClarence again distinguished himself by his coolness and courage, and was again wounded (severely through both legs)."

Served in the Kano-Sokoto Expedition in West Africa in 1903 (F.C.). Was awarded the Victoria Cross under the following circumstances:—On 26th Feb. 1903, Lieut. Wright continued to follow them up until they were in full retreat.
